Diane retired from her position as President of Anchor Insurance and Investment Services, a subsidiary of Anchor Bank to open her own agency, The Dillett Company, Inc, in 2000. Ms Dillett guided individuals and small businesses in their retirement and health and life insurance planning. Retiring from that business in 2015, Ms Dillett directed her full time efforts to helping folks transition into Medicare supplemental insurance planning through her company, Medical Insurance Solutions for Seniors, LLC. As an independent broker, Ms. Dillett is able to present and explain the various options available, the critical timing and to discuss current legislation involved. "I love meeting folks as they enter this new and exciting phase of life. Once they make the insurance transition, they can move on to full or partial retirement and the new opportunities available to them."
